Title of the Course taught: A Review of Environmental Law and Natural Resources Law in the United States

This is to present a certificate of appreciation to David L. Ganje, J.D. who taught a short intensive specialist course titled "A Review of Environmental Law and Natural Resources Law in the United States " at the Faculty of Law, Masaryk University, Brno, from May 4 - 13, 2015.

The MU Faculty of Law highly appreciates the opportunity to invite guest lecturers and foreign experts to Brno to teach and broaden the learning experience of our students. Therefore it was a great pleasure for us to host Mr Ganje who succeeded in creating a highly motivational learning environment. As a result, the course received overwhelmingly positive feedback from the students. The feedback provided evidence of the connection between the legal expertise which Mr Ganje so successfully implemented and managed in his teaching and the motivation in the students who were eager to learn and gain international outlook.
